Once upon a time there was a small hill. A path went up the hill. It went through thick and lovely woods of pine, peepal and banyan trees. People often walked on it to a holy place. One day when the sun shone high in the sky many people were seen climbing up the hill. They were climbing slowly and carefully.

A girl also climbed the hill with them. Her name was Meena.

Meena was twelve years old. She carried a small boy on her back. He was four years old. His hair were curly. His eyes were black and his face was as fresh as the morning dew.

As the sunshine danced through the trees, Meena climbed the hill slowly and slowly. Meena was happy. The boy was also happy.

A man in the group looked at Meena. He felt sorry for her. He asked her, “My child why are you carrying a boy on your back. Don't you feel his load?”

Meena looked at him in wonder. She could not understand him. (Her brother was unable to walk) Meena said, “Load? Of course not! He is my brother!”

Let's know these signs

Sign Language is a visual language, consisting of signs, gestures, finger spelling and facial expressions.

Children who cannot hear may use sign language for communication. Sign language uses the hands to send information and the eyes to receive them. It is a visual manual language system with its own sentence structure and word order. Usually, words are signed and spoken at the same time. Using this method for young children with disabilities is sometimes referred to as total communication. Although using sign language is important for communication, it can also be an adventure for everyone.

Here are some words that you can learn in sign language.
Show and say as seen in the pictures below

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the pre-reading questions aloud to introduce the theme of the story. Let the children talk individually about something they want to do very much but which their adults won’t let them do. You can then ask them to think about why adults seem to be behaving unreasonably and if there might be some reason behind it e.g. if a child wants to drive a vehicle why can’t he or she do so?
- Explain to the class through examples how friends, brothers, sisters and family are very important in the life of a person.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.
- Discuss and help them with the activities. You may explain short forms of the words and their significance in our conversation e.g. Are – ‘re, Will – ‘ll. Listing of the contractions may be done on the blackboard.
- After this unit is completed children can tell the class about their ambitions i.e. what they want to be when they grow up.

Teaching sign language

You can start with signing a few words. Repeat in different situations so that meaning is attached to your hand movements.
- Talk when you sign. Keep your language simple. Use appropriate facial expression with signs and speech.
